Crossroad Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. We have a saying. You re either dead and chompin or alive and hidin . In Snareville, neither is an option. Lemme tell you big city folks a story. You think you knew all about us small-town folk, didn t you? Laughed at us bushwhackers, your poor country cousins out in the sticks. That all changed when Z-Day came. That was when we realised that growing up in a small town gave us an advantage you folks didn t have. Small towns are easier to defend - from the zombies, if not the other enemies. Of course, our survival has a price. Hell, what doesn t? The story I m gonna tell you will shock you, may even terrify you. Yep, I ve got two wives, I got more guns under my command than you can ever dream about. We got a whole new system of justice and morality that may jar with some of you liberal types - just ask the rapist who we sent packing. But lemme tell you.in a world where folk we thought of as human can pimp out zombies as hookers, you know morality has taken a back seat. This is my story. The story of a small town and how we prevailed. Against the zombies and a far worse enemy. The story of me and my Raiders: Pepper, Catfish, Tony, Jinks, Star.and Jen. Read it. And then you ll know why they call me Captain Death. Welcome to Snareville.
