Excerpt: . what is dearest to us, and a funeral and a headstone to mark the place, hard as it is, is as nothing compared to the death in life of an existence which is always dragging about a corpse. I have seen that not once nor twice. I want to save you from that. Di laid her face for a moment on the kind hand. I will bury my dead, she said. CHAPTER XXXVII. And now we believe in evil Where once we believed in good. The world, the flesh, and the devil Are easily understood. --Gordon. It seems a pity that our human destinies are too often so constituted that with our own hands we may annul in one hour--one hour of weakness--the long, slow work of our strength; annul the self-conquest and the renunciation of our best years. We ought to be thankful when the gate of the irrevocable closes behind us, and the power to defeat ourselves is at last taken from us. For he who has once solemnly and with conviction renounced, and then, for no new cause, has taken to himself again that which he renounced, has broken the mainspring of his life. John went early the following morning to London, for he had business with three men, and he could not rest till he had seen them, and had shut that gate upon himself for ever. So early had he started that it was barely midday when he...
