Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Sir Dudley North on Discourses Upon Trade, 1691 In 1846 the pamphlet was again Issued in limited edition by the Blacks, probably through McCulloch s influence and with a preface not unlikely from his pen, and in 1856 it was included in the select collection of early English tracts on commerce edited by McCulloch for the Political Economy Club. All of these reprints have become but a degree less scarce than the original tract. North s essay is of interest rather than of Influence in the development of economic thought and action. Even here cautious critics may not concur in McCullochs unqualified verdict that the tract contains a more able and comprehensive statement of the true principles of commerce than any that had primarily appeared, either in the English or any other language. But withal the pamphlet is a notable performance, and its re-issue in accessible form will be welcomed by students of the history of economic theory. The present edition is a reprint of the Discourses as issued in 1691. The general appearance of the title page has been preserved, and the original pagination has been indicated.
