Giano, 2010. Book Condition: new. Traduzione di Fefè S. Varese, 2010; br., pp. 575, cm 13,5x21,5. (Nerogiano). Chalmette è un quartiere di New Orleans che è un eufemismo definire malfamato. In uno di questi vicoli, è in sosta una Mercury Turnpike Cruiser. In un'umida notte d'agosto, la polizia scopre il cadavere di un uomo di circa cinquant'anni. Gli esami post mortem accertano che è stato colpito alla testa e al collo con un martello e che gli è stato inciso il cuore. Lungo la schiena, sotto il collo e sopra le spalle, l'uomo presenta uno strano disegno raffigurante la costellazione dei gemelli. La polizia si appresta ad appurarne l'identità, quando l'inchiesta viene secretata e trasferita nelle mani dell'FBI. Il morto, infatti, è un ex poliziotto diventato guardia del corpo di Charles Mason Ducane, governatore dello stato della Louisiana. Accompagnava per le strade di New Orleans la figlia diciannovenne del governatore, Catherine, che è stata rapita. L'agente Schaeffer riceve la telefonata di uno sconosciuto che, con una indefinibile inflessione nella voce, gli intima di portare un certo Ray Hartmann, investigatore speciale a New York, a New Orleans nel giro di ventiquattr'ore, pena la vita della ragazza. È l'inizio di un lungo confronto tra i due uomini, il poliziotto che ha sacrificato la sua vita privata alla lotta ai Cambino e ai Genovese, i clan di Cosa Nostra che regnano a New York, e il killer che ha trascorso l'intera sua esistenza a uccidere al servizio della mafia.
