Excerpt from Mr. Fillmore at Home: His Reception at New York and Brooklyn, and Progress Through the State to His Residence in Buffalo In order that the history of Mr. Fillmore's reception in his native State may be complete, and its lessons properly understood by all, we give in connection therewith the platform of principles upon which he was placed in nomination by the national convention of the American party, together with his letter of acceptance and the ratification resolutions adopted by the National Council, and the grand council of his State. Platform of the American Party, adopted at the Session of the National Council. February 21, 1856. 1st. An humble acknowledgment to the Supreme Being for His protecting care vouchsafed to our fathers in their successful Revolutionary struggle, and hitherto manifested to us. their descendants, in the preservation of the liberties, the independence and the union of these States. 2d. The perpetuation of the Federal Union, as the palladium of our civil and religious liberties, and the only sure bulwark of American Independence. 3d. Americans must rule America; and to this end, native-born citizens should be selected for all State, Federal, or municipal offices, or government employment, in preference to all others; nevertheless, 4th. Persons born of American parents residing temporarily abroad, should be entitled to all the rights of native-born citizens; but 5th. No person should be selected for political station (whether of native or foreign birth), who recognizes any allegiance or obligation of any description to any foreign prince, potentate or power, or who refuses to recognize the Federal and State constitutions (each within its sphere), as paramount to all other laws, as...
