Reviews

This written publication is wonderful. It really is loaded with knowledge and wisdom. You will not really feel monotony at any time of your time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you ask me). (Desmond Becker)

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, Vol. 3: Standard Forms for Financial Reports of Colleges, Universities, and Technical Schools The present bulletin is the result of a prolonged inquiry concerning the practice of universities and colleges in the United States in the rendering of public financial statements of their receipts and of their expenditures. It represents also the results of many conferences with the financial officers of colleges and universities, as well as with public accountants and others familiar with the object which such financial statements should serve. Tax-supported institutions are required by law to print an annual detailed statement of their receipts and expenditures. These reports in some cases simply give the list of separate vouchers. While this may have a value in complying with the state law, such reports serve only a limited purpose in showing the actual operations of the institutions concerned. Nevertheless, it is true that the tax-supported institutions have had a real source of strength by reason of this enforced publicity. Among endowed institutions only a small minority publish annual financial statements. The great mass of institutions of higher learning in the United States bearing the name college or university make no public accounting of the disposition of the moneys which they receive. It seems clear that both from the standpoint of its own efficiency no less than from the standpoint of its obligation to the public, every public institution like a college should print annually a report as to the use of the moneys which it has received. It is in the hope of facilitating this public duty, and with the hope further of bringing about some...
